PACKAGINGS

Blister Card Packaging

Traditional blister card packaging with a clear molded blister securely attached to a printed backing card. Designed for excellent product visibility while providing protection and convenient retail display.

Window Box Packaging

Classic window box packaging with a premium display design, featuring a large clear viewing window that showcases the collectible while protecting it from dust and damage. The model comes shipped in a red, Coca-Cola-themed window-style box and is securely protected by a two-piece clear plastic former, making it ideal for both display and storage.
